During the pious months of Shravan and Adhik Maas, tradition of celebrating the festivals was followed. Katha, Parayan, Janmastmi Utsav and festivals continued to be celebrated during the whole Adhik Purushottam Maas. Shodasopchar Maha-Abhishek of Thakorji were performed in each of our temples with dome by H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj and H.H. Shri Lalji Maharaj. Haribhaktas also did not miss such opportunities and rendered their devout services as hosts.

During this Kali-Kaal, Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan has made emancipation in life very easy for everybody which can be ensured by him by performing Bhajan-Smaran, Shastang Dandwat, Pradikishna and by reading of the Scriptures. But one thing must be kept in mind that we have got Maharaj in front of our eyes and therefore upasana of our Maharaj should also be there. Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan is Incarnation of all incarnations. If we can get divine Darshan of Maharaj in this life then our life is successful. Secondly this year on 24th October 2012, 40th Prakatyotsav of our H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj would be celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm in our Shree Swaminarayan temple, Kalupur, Ahmedabad and therefore the whole Satsang is cordially invited to participate in this Prakatyotsav.

Shikshapatri

The Epistle of Precepts

(based on Shatanand's Shikshapatri Arthadipika)

By Pravin S. Varsani

Text-75

One shall never disclose the secrets of others to anyone else and shall give due respect to deserving persons, but under no circumstances shall the bounds of courtesy be violated for observing a false decorum of equality.

Guhyavarta Tu Kasyapai Prakashya Naiva Kutrachit. Yagnavalkya explains, 'One should not reveal any information that should be kept quiet or not worthy of being disclosed. Such information should not be spoken or revealed in public.'

Narad has glorified such quality by saying to the Rishis Nar-Narayan: 'I have never revealed any information worthy to be kept quiet or secretive.' This directly attacks the repulsive nature of people to gossip.

Some people's tendency to gossip can often bring about information that really should not be revealed in that way. Often such talk may hurt people or indeed be simply false. Nobody likes to be talked about in public and so we should all use a bit more care when speaking in public.

The second directive in this Shloka looks at giving respect to those who are worthy of respect. Shatanand explains the hierarchy in living beings and the fact that those who are higher in status should always be given due respect.

Kapil Muni has explained this hierarchy in nature of living beings (starting at the lowest level):

1. Those inanimate lifeless objects such as dried grass.
2. Animate objects with vital breath such as green grass.
3. Those with knowledge and sense of touch such as a tree.
4. Those with a sense of taste such as fish.
5. Those with a sense of smell such as wasps.
6. Those that understand sound such as snakes.
7. Those that understand and find distinction through their sense of sight such as birds.
8. Those with proper set of teeth (upper and lower teeth).
9. Those with many legs.
10. Those with four legs.
11. Those with two legs.
12. A member of the four castes.
13. A Brahmin.
14. Those learned in the Vedas.
15. Those with political or economic status.
16. Those that remove doubt and instill faith.
17. Those that act in accordance to Dharma.
18. Those that renounce desire for worldly objects.
19. Those that devote their mind, wealth and resources to God.
20. Those with full devotion to God, who are always in service.

21. Those that see God in everything, in all forms in nature and so meditate upon God in this way.

Thus, we can realise the development of nature's entities as they progress one-by-one. God is every form mentioned above. Those that recognize this and praise all – plants and creatures great and small, who duly practice the great Dharma of Ahimsa for this reason and who in every act are in the service of God and God's creatures, are considered to be of the highest status in nature. They are fully developed and the best amongst the living.

All my disciples shall perform additional religious duties during the four months of monsoon (Chaturmaas). Those who are incapable shall perform them during the month of Shraavana.

Shreeji Maharaj now explains the various Vratas or religious disciplines to be practised. For three Shlokas, he explains the various duties to be practised during Chaturmaas:

Visheshaniyami

Dharyashaturmaasyeakhlilaurapi |
Ekasmichravane Maasi Sa
Tvashaktaustu Minavau ||

Chaturmaas (four months) Vratas from Asadh Suda Ekadashi (11) to Kartak Suda Dwadashi (12) are to be observed.

All – men and women, should keep additional Niyams or Vratas during Chaturmaas. Shatanand Muni here makes a point of assumption – he assumes that we observe the basic Niyams anyway. As this is often not the case, we should really make more of an effort to observe the basic Niyams in Chaturmaas as well as performing additional Niyams.

Those who are not capable of four months of Vrata should do so for just the one-month of Shraavana. One should begin their Chaturmaas Vratas by observing a full day fast (Upavaas) on the first day Asadh Suda Ekadashi. Those who do not observe such Vrata are destined to suffer the sins of a full year. Hence those who observe such Vrata become free of such sin.

It is said that Shraavana Maas Vrata should be kept for duration of six weeks, from the beginning of Chaturmaas up to the end of Shraavana Maas.

Chaturmaas (rainy season)) is considered as Satva Guni. The four months of Unaro (hot season) are Tamo Guni and the four onths of Siyaro (cold season) are Rajo Guni. Devatas also keep the Vrata of Chaturmaas performing great penance to please the Supreme Lord.

Shree Nilkanth Varni performed great penance at Pulashram during Chaturmaas, thus setting an example for all to do the same. Chaturmmas are the four months when, God's Bhaktas should stay 'awake' in their devotion and faith in God by performing such Vratas and Niyams. From all the various Niyams the Lord chooses eight which he himself considers as the best.

the plant of Tulsi in the morning after taking bath, chanting the following Shloka: सौभरगुं सनुतरुतुं देवु, धन धरनुयुनुनुमे सदा, आरुगुय शुक शमनुं, कुरु मे मरधव प्रुये It should, however, be remembered that no garbage should be dropped on the plant of Tulsi, there should not be any spitting and leaving the foot-wears near the Plant of Tulsi and all sanctity of a temple should be maintained around the plant of Tulsi. To have a plant of Tulsi is a mark of being a devotee. When Hanumanji were searching for any devotee in Lanka for his help, he saw a plant of Tulsi outside the residence of Vibhishan and Hanumanji thought that this must be the place of a devotee of Bhagwan.

Bhagwan always protects the devotee and his family, who has a plant of Tulsi in front of his house and such a devotee becomes rich and happy in his life. Our Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan has established and developed the tradition of celebrating Vrat-utsav of Vitthalnathji.

From the point of view of health, Tulsi-Patra is considered to be the King of all Aushadhis (Medicines) and it is a tremendous source of our resistance power. Even the climate around plant of Tulsi remains clean and pure as it destroys all harmful insects. By taking Tulsi-Patra many incurable diseases can be cured whose detail description is given in Charak-Samhita. In the ritual of offering alms, offering the plant of Tulsi is capable of fulfilling all desires and wishes. Having a plant of Tulsi in front of our house is suggestive of presence of Narayan and Laxmiji.

BLESSINGS OF H.H. SHRI MOTA MAHARAJ (SYDNEY- AUSTRALIA)

- Compilation : Gordhanbhai Sitapara (Hirawadi-Bapunagar)

- Co-operation : Hajuri Parshad Kanu Bhagar Guru Hajuri Parshad Vanraj Bhagar

There were five hundred Param-hamsas during the time of Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan. Each of these Nand-saints were learned, masters of one or the other art, excellent orators and having Aishwarya. Once Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan made an experiment. Maharaj called Bramchari Vasudevanand Varni made him sit upon His seat and Maharaj Himself performed aarti of Brahmchari. This experiment continued for two-three days. However, this continued anymore, as other saints who were equivalent to Brahmchari in their knowledge and status. They felt it like a burden. Therefore, they complained to Maharaj, “Maharaj! We cannot bear this burden, we are Tyagi.”

Thereafter on request of the saints, Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan called his both the brothers. In the big sabha of the saints and devotees, Maharaj asked his brothers to give their one son for Sampradaya- it would not matter whether the son is elder or younger- this son should be following Dharma himself and be also capable of convincing others to follow. Accordingly, two sons were given and Maharaj adopted them as His sons and made each of them as Acharya of Ahmedabad Desh Gadi and Vadtal Desh Gadi. In this way, Maharaj established the Seat of Acharya in Kul of Dharmdev.

I am 6th in the line of tradition of Acharya of Ahmedabad Gadi. Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan has developed a unique system. Acharya of Swaminarayan Sampradaya should be married and his son thereafter becomes Acharya. At the same time, Maharaj has also prescribed certain Dharm-Niyam for Acharya. Acharya is not supposed to touch and speak with other females. Wife of Acharya can grant Guru-Mantra to the ladies devotees of Sampradaya, and this right is given by Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan himself. The tradition established at that time by Shreeji Maharaj is continued till date. As determined by Shreeji Maharaj Himself there are two principal functions of Acharya. Invocation of the idol images is to be performed by Acharya and Saint Diksha and Gurumantra is to be given by Acharya. Only such idol images are considered to be valid in Sampradaya and is worthy of being worshipped.

Before some time we had been to Sharjah Dubai. Nowadays the rules and regulations have been much liberalized. At that time, these rules and regulations were very strict. We were having with us idol image of Harikrishna Maharaj for pooja. It was prohibited to carry such idol images. Checking officers stopped us. Looking at the idol image he told, “What is this? This cannot be kept together?” For one moment, a thought came in the mind that, if it is not permitted to carry the idol image, then we should return back. But the next moment an idea struck to our mind and replied to the query : “This is our great grandfather!” the officer looked at us and at the idol image and allowed us to carry the idol image!.

Ultimately they agreed.

There are two principal functions to be performed by Acharya: (1) Invocation of the idol image. (2) Saint Diksha and Guru Mantra. Only those idol images whose invocation is performed by Acharya are considered to be valid in Sampradaya and is worthy to be worshipped. Similarly only those saints and Haribhaktas are considered as valid by Shreeji Maharaj who has been granted Saint Diksha and Guru Mantra. Only those Sadhus who have been granted Diksha by Acharya are considered to be Sadhu of Swaminarayan Sampradaya. So it is proper for all the devotees and saints to know about the tradition established by Shreeji Maharaj Himself.

Many a times, people used to ask Maharaj to give life to the dead. Sometimes Maharaj used to give life, but He was capable of doing it because He was Bhagwan. But on most of the occasion, the reply of Maharaj would be that, he does not know how to give life to the dead. However, we know to teach the art of living life in such a way that one does not die again and again. Maharaj has shown this to us in the pious 'Shiksha Patri'. In this pious scripture, every essence of all the scriptures of the world is given. And therefore, while reading the pious 'Shiksha Patri', devotee of any sect or religion feels as if he is reading the religious book of his own religion. A Jain feels that description about non-violence is according to Jain scriptures. A Christian feels that these 10 Commandments are also there in Christianity. In fact in our 'Shiksha Patri' it is taught how to live our day to day life. For example, Maharaj has stated, there should not be expenses more than income. This appears very small but violation of this simple rule brings great miseries and unhappiness in our life.

Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan

Himself had written Shiksha Patri, one copy thereof was offered in gift to Sir Malcolm of British Government. Even today this 'Shiksha Patri' is preserved in the British Museum, Oxford University. Only after giving bond in writing, this 'Shiksha Patri' was permitted to be taken for Darshan in our temples. At present, they do not allow to touch it so that it is not damaged in any way. For some time now, we wished to have Darshan of this 'Shiksha Patri' and we went there but even we were not permitted to touch it. Only when the saints informed the authorities that, we are the sixth descendant of the author of this 'Shiksha Patri', we were allowed to touch.

'Shiksha Patri' is very useful each and every devotee of our Sampradaya. It was the objective of Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan that each and every devotee may perform his duties well.

Once one British officer had asked Maharaj, "Though we keep an army and soldiers for us yet we cannot get our one order so uniformly and effectively, then how do you maintain huge number of devotees and Parshads and saints?" Maharaj asked him to ask the same question to the devotees and saints. Then Kathi Darbar devotees accompanying Maharaj replied, "Like your soldier, we are also soldiers of Bhagwan Swaminarayan. We render our devout services without any salary or fees. And at times of war or battle, we do not hesitate to offer our lives for our Bhagwan. Our Bhagwan has taught us Art of Living Life through 'Shiksha Patri'. We have been made free from addiction, which is our salary." Listening to the reply the British Officer was surprised and thought whatever larger number of soldiers he cannot win the battle against Maharaj with a fewer devotees and Parshads.

How great would be the devotees during the time of Shreeji Maharaj can be imagined from the gifts they used to offer at the feet of Maharaj. Here is one such rosary of beads. Each bead is knitted with cotton thread and by knitting such 108 beads, one rosary is made by one of the devotees and is offered to Maharaj.

This devotee must have attained Akshardham. Because we know that we use rosary to chant the name of Shree Hari and it is also a means to perform Mantra-jaap of Shree Swaminarayan Shadakshari Mantra. While preparing each bead, this devotee must have chanted the name of Shree Hari and must have cherished the desire of obtaining pleasure of Maharaj.

This rosary, which has been preserved in Dharmkul, is kept for divine Darshan in Hall No.1 of Shree Swaminarayan Museum. One enlarged copy of the photograph of this rosary is also kept so that our devotees can look at and appreciate the intricacies of the knitting of the rosary.

CHINTAN OF CHARNARVIND

- Shastri Haripriyadasji (Gandhinagar)

The whole world runs after happiness but nobody gets real happiness. Because nobody is able to get the real address of happiness and therefore everybody is unhappy. It is stated:

“રાજા ભી દુઃખિયા,

રંક ભી દુઃખિયા ધનપતિ દુઃખિ વિકાર મે

બિના વિવેક ભેખ સખ દુઃખિયા,

સંત સુખી સંસારમે.”

Thus, in this world, all the people are unhappy and only those who can find out the correct address of happiness become happy in their life. So let us ask such people to show us the correct address of happiness. The address shown by such people is as under:

સુરપુર, નરપુર, નાગપુર એ ત્રીનમે સુખ નાહી,

સુખ હે હરિકે ચરણ મે કાં સંતન કે માંહી.

Now let us think about Sol Chinha - sixteen symbols- of Charnarvind of Maharaj and try to understand the importance of each of them.

Jav : toe of right leg is shaped like ‘Jav’. By worshipping it one gets meals and gets knowledge about Atma and Parmatma.

Vajra : Below the sign of Jav is situated the symbol of Vajra. By worshipping it one wins all his inner enemies and gets power of Vajra and the mountains of sins get destroyed and obtains the state of Sthitapragna.

Urdhva Rekha : It goes down between toe and finger of the right leg. By worshipping it one gets upward spiritual progress in life.

Jambu : It is a symbol of the shape of fruit Jambu situated below Vajra of right leg. By worshipping it one never gets

શ્રીમદગણેશજી SATSANG BALVATIKA

- Compiler Shastri Harikehsavdasji

swayed away by Maya and any of its objects and mind rests in idol image of Bhagwan.

Ketu (Dhaja): In the sole of the right leg and towards the right side of Vjra, Jambufal and Urdhva Rekha, is situated the symbol of Ketu. By worshipping it one wins over enemy of Kaam and Mayik Sukh-vasana.

Padma (Kamal, Lotus): It is situated to the right side of the symbol of Ketu. By worshipping it one remains unaffected by the worldly affairs and thereby ensures spiritual progress in life.

Ankush: It is situated below the symbol of Padma. By worshipping it the devotee one wins Madonmat Hathi in the form of his mind.

Ashtkon : This symbol is situated in inner part of the right sole. By worshipping it one obtains Ashtang Yog very easily and gets place in Dham of Bhagwan.

Swastik: This symbol is situated on outside part of the right sole. By worshipping it one gets all his sins destroyed and gets emancipation in his life.

Thus, we knew about nine symbols of right leg of Maharaj. Now let us know about symbols of left leg of Maharaj:

Kalash: This symbol is situated in the sole below the toe of the left leg. The devotee worshipping it is considered to be the highest peak of the temple and like Kalash, the devotee gets highest place in Akshardham.

Ardha-chandra: This symbol is situated to the left side of Urdhwa-rekha which shines in Parva of fingers. By worshipping it one gets perfection in his worship like a full-moon and ultimately gets emancipation.

Vyom: This symbol is situated to the left side of Ardha-chandra in the left leg of Maharaj. By worshipping it one obtains happiness of Shree hari and becomes serene like sky.

Dhanushya: This symbol is situated to the left side of Urdhwa-rekha. By worshipping it one wins over all his enemies.

Gopad: This symbol is situated to the left side of Dhanushya in the sole of leg let. By worshipping it one crosses the ocean of this life without any hard work.

Trikon: This symbol is situated in inner side of left leg of Maharaj. By worshipping it gets rid of Trividh Taap of this world, obtains divine body which Brahma-maya and at last gets place in the lotus-like feet of Shree Hari.

Matsya: This symbol is situated to the outer side of left leg of Maharaj. By worshipping it one becomes capable of facing all adversities of life and obtains powers to fight all the battles of life very bravely.

Similarly Nishkulanand Swami has also explained the importance of this sixteen symbols in Chintamani. So let us worship these symbols and become happy in our life.

RAKSHA OF BHAKTA

- Sadhu Shrirangdas (Gandhinagar)

Who is protected by Bhagwan? Those who have ardent affection towards Bhagwan. There are two types of Jiva 1) Aastik and 2) Nastik. Aastik means one who believes in God and who worships Him ardently and devoutly, who has fear of God in his life. And therefore Bhagwan has kept his name 'Aastik' for the people of this world. In 'Janmangal Namavali' 22nd name of Bhagwan is 'Aastik'.

The people who have ardent faith in God and who cherish the faith that God protects them are said to have been cherishing aastik Bhaav. A person cherishing such a faith is called aastik. Whether Bhagwan does not protect His devotee? He certainly does, but the ignorant Jiv does not understand this. What is required is ardent faith.

There was one saint whose name was Akhandanand Swami. He was always found enjoying Bhakti and Bhajan and therefore he was named Akhandanand by Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan. He was very brave in his thinking and he used to preach all sermons with great love and affection. Due to tremendous Satsang he had very rich experience of Satsang and life.

Once he was passing through a dense forest. In fact he was returning from Satsang of the village and now he wanted to have Darshan of Maharaj. On his journey he came across four tigers in the forest. Looking at the tigers, Akhandanand Swami thought, let these poor and hungry animals eat up my body. Their hunger would be satisfied and I would get emancipation and a place in Akshardham. But omnipresent Shreeji Maharaj thought,

“If these tigers would eat up the saint, who shall call and remember me as Merciful.” So Maharaj changed the thoughts of tigers and the animals started playing at the feet of the saint. Akhandanand Swami smiled and went away.

He came to Gadhda and performed Dandwat Pranam to Maharaj and narrated everything that happened with him in the forest. Then Maharaj said, “We entered into the body of the tigers and protected you.”

So friends and devotees! Our Bhagwan is always present to protect us and when the devotees are in difficulty He runs to protect them. Dayanand Swami has sung in Kirtan:

જહાં જહાં ભીડ પડત ભક્તનકું તહાં તહાં હોત સહાઈ રે,
દયાનંદ કો નાથ દયાળુ, ભજો ભાવ ઉર લાઈ રે,

Therefore, we should always cherish ardent faith in Bhagwan because He has kept his name ‘Aastik’.

FROM THE BLESSINGS OF H.H. SHRI
GADIWALA 'PRUDENT PERSONS TRY TO SAVE THEMSELVES'

- Compilation : Kotak Varsha Natvarlal, Ghodasar)

Once a man while passing through a forest, came across a lion. So he started running to save his life. The lion chased him. The man ran very fast and reached at the end of the road and the next was deep valley. There was a tree along the road and one of the branches of the tree was hanging over the road. The man jumped up and hanged at the branch of the tree. When he looked up, two rats, black and white in colour, were cutting the branch. And the branch was hanging outside the road above the deep valley. Above the branch was bee-hive and the honey was about to drip from the hive. The man relished the drop of honey and forgot everything. Our life is also like this man. Lion is Death who is always chasing. White and black rats are day and night and honey is Maya of this life. And we the common people of this world forget impending danger of Death of Lion and enjoy the sweetness of Maya of honey. However, nobody is saved from Death in the form of Lion and these days and nights in the form of rats are cutting the age of our life in the form of the branch of the tree. And though we know all these things yet we get lost ourselves in the Maya in the form of tasting drop of honey.

‘અજબ આ જગત છે, ઉંડા છે એના પાયા;
બધું જાણવા છતાં, મેલાતી નથી માયા.’

The persons who are ignorant and who do not understand anything, they think that, this is the right time to taste the honey. So thereby they enjoy and relish the worldly pleasures which are temporal. Though they know about the impending fear of

ભક્તિસુધા BHAKTI-SUDHA

Death, they simply neglect it.

But what do the prudent persons do? They try to save themselves from this. So they choose the path of Bhakti and introspection and self analysis. They try to know themselves, they talk with themselves and find out their own weaknesses and then they also try to get rid of such weaknesses. They perform Bhajan-Kirtan, Prarthna etc. They also perform Satsang and thereby obtain the pleasure of Maharaj and ensure emancipation in their life. So we should also choose the path chosen by the prudent persons and should ensure emancipation and eternal peace in our life.

KUSANG

- Sankhya Yogi Kokilaba
(Surendranagar)

Mainly there are three types of Kusang (bad company). 1) Outer Kusang 2) Inner Kusang and 3) Kusang in Satsang. Thus, these are three types of Kusang. In Shloka-27 of 'Shiksha Patri' Shreeji Maharaj has stated, "One shall never associate with thieves, sinners, drug addicts, hypocrites, licentious and such other deceitful persons." Thus, it is prohibited to have company of these six types of persons. Such a bad company is contagious in nature and it is bound to affect us. In Vachanamrit-48 of Gadhda First Chapter Maharaj has asked to be aware of four types of Kusangi people. 1) Kudapanthi 2) Shaktipanthi 3) Shuska Vedanti and 4) Nastik.

Another type of Kusang is Inner Kusang. Kusang of our senses is very powerful. A man is always surrounded by Kam, Krodh, Lobh, Man, Rasaswa, Irshya, Raag, Dwesh, Chhalkapat etc. and due to these inner Kusang his faith and Bhakti do not remain stable. In order to save himself from these inner Kusang, a man has to perform Bhakti and divine Darshan constantly.

Third type of Kusang is Kusang in Satsang. In Vachanamrit-17 of Gadhda First Chapter, Shreeji Maharaj has described this type of Kusang in Satsang. Now what is Kusang in Satsang? To gossip in temple premises is Kusang in Satsang. To cherish the feeling jealousy or to behave rudely with the elders is also Kusang in Satsang. So one should always abstain from these three type of Kusang. It is better to remain alone than to remain in bad company

Brahmanand Swami is a great Kirtankar and is a glory of our Sampradaya just like a Star of Dhruv. Brahmanand Swami was very firm like Dhruv. He was not swayed away from any of the worldly pleasures and happiness which were offered to him during his life. He was a great poet and an ardent devotee of Maharaj. Here in the above Kirtan ardent description of Balkrishna in Gokul with Jashodamata and other Gopis is narrated beautifully. This Kirtan is like a drop of the ocean of literary creations of Brahmanand Swami. In the last Charan of Pada, the pest describes Krishnajivan Leela. There are such other numerous Padas and Kirtans in Indian literature which are worthy to be relished by both the lovers of literature as well as by devotees.

“અહો પ્રભો ! અચરજ માયા તુમ્હારી,
